

Kent Linux User Group Dover Meeting Location

To help everyone find the Dover Meeting site decided to produce this little flyer. The first time I went I could not find it and spent an hour driving around looking for it and had to pay for parking as I took a wrong turn into the car park. I hope this helps others not to make the same mistake.

As you come down the A2 you come to a roundabout and you want to take the right hand exit, which I think is sign posted car park and ferry terminal. You don't want to drive up the ramp to the short stay car park but just stop by the foot passenger terminal and the little AA shop, where the number 1 is. You can park here for 15mins until you get clamped.

Now you need to walk over to number 2, which is the Police Station and ask for a day parking pass for the orange or purple car park as you are attending a meeting at Migrant Helpline. This way you will only have to pay £1 to park all day and wont get clamped.

Now follow the exit signs (which is sort of the route of the red line). Hopefully cars wont be coming off a ferry as you must get in the left hand lane quickly. Before you get to the roundabout which goes back up the A2 take the turning just past the building and before the wall. Drive along and park at number 3. Remember to leave your parking pass on display.

Now walk up the steps and to the KLUG meeting which is number 4.
