

Wednesday 15 July

Austin Court, Birmingham

Linux Day - SLESfest

Agenda

9.15 – 10.00	Registration	LAB SLES Installfest – just BYOL
10.00 – 10.15	Introduction
10.15 – 11.00	Novell keynote Brian Green, Novell UK Ltd
11.00 – 11.15	TC&B
11.15 – 12.00	Using Domain Services for Windows – a real example David Guest, Salford Software Ltd
12.00 – 12.45	SSH – more than just logging in Roger Whittaker, Novell UK Ltd
12.45 – 13.30	Lunch	LAB SLES Installfest – just BYOL
13.30 – 14.15	Autoyast – automated server builds Adam Spiers, Novell UK Ltd
14.15 – 15.00	Asterisk – open source telephony Nicholas Barnes - Vitell
15.00 – 15.15	TC&B
15.15 – 16.00	Teaming v2 – new look, new features. Robin Redgrave, Novell UK Ltd
16.00 – 16.15	Q&A / Prize draw / Close

- ✓ Bring Your Own Laptop (BYOL) and join the lab sessions to install, configure and test SLES (in a VM) at your own pace with experts on hand to assist and answer all your questions.
- ✓ Austin Court is the IET Conference Centre at 80 Cambridge St, Birmingham. B1 2NP. It is in central Birmingham between the NIA and ICC, on the canal-side. New St station is in easy walking distance and there is parking close by.
- ✓ This event is free to members of Open-Horizons UK. Non-members may also attend, but will incur a charge of £99 which gives membership of Open-Horizons UK until April 2010.
- ✓ Please register for this event at www.open-horizons.co.uk.
- ✓ Don't miss out!